

The 2011 Grub Street Gift Guide: Picks From the Country's Best Chefs

12/1/11 at 12:20 PM | Comment

Watch the slideshow

We've got something for everyone.

Food lovers can be a tough crowd to shop for. After all, there are only so many useful kitchen gadgets and interesting bottles of Scotch you can give. But who better to offer excellent foodie gift-giving advice than some of the country's best chefs? We asked, and they were happy to oblige. So check out this year's edition of the Grub Street Gift Guide for more than 20 ideas — organized by price, in ascending order — from chefs like Marcus Samuelsson, Lydia Shire, Michael Chiarello, Daniel Humm, and plenty of others.

GRUB STREET Back to post | More slideshows

The 2011 Grub Street Gift Guide: Picks From the Country's Best Chefs

12 of 23

The Perfect Pan for Eggs

Hill Country's Elizabeth Karmel suggests a very specific kitchen gadget: "I just discovered the perfect egg pan from All-Clad. It's about half the diameter of your usual pan; it's just the perfect size. I bought it for everyone on my list." All-Clad Stainless Steel French Skillets, from $80

Photo: Melissa Horn